Visiting Professor in Economics

The University of Macau (UMacau) is the flagship public university in Macao, which gives it a unique advantage when pursuing the goal of becoming a world-class university with regional characteristics. English is its working language. In recent years, the university has made great progress in various areas, gaining increasing international recognition for its teaching, research, and community service. To better support higher education development in Macao and to meet society's ever-increasing demand for high-quality professionals, the university relocated in August 2014 to a new campus of approximately 1.09 square kilometres. With a state-of-the-art campus, the implementation of Asia's largest residential college system, the establishment of new faculties and well-equipped laboratories, the increasing numbers of students and faculty members recruited from around the world, UMacau possesses great potential and provides exciting new possibilities for professional development.

The Asia-Pacific Academy of Economics and Management (APAEM) invites applications for a one-year contract for the position of Visiting Professor in Economics.

Qualifications

Candidates should possess a PhD degree in Economics or a related discipline, with rich experience in excellent research records and demonstrable expertise in university teaching. Candidates must have at least five years senior administrative experience and be fluent, and able to teach, in English. An ability to speak Chinese (Putonghua or Cantonese) would be an advantage.

Major responsibilities

1. To provide guidance for research and journal publications for APAEM
2. To teach 3 hours of course per week per semester
3. To support the Director of APAEM to promote the Academy and accomplish its mission
4. To provide supervision and conduct research, seminars and conferences for APAEM
5. To mentor and work with junior faculty members to publish journal articles
6. Other duties assigned by the Director of APAEM

The selected candidate is expected to assume duty in September 2017.
